

WOMEN IN TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

A unique 3-day
professional development program focused on the advancement of women in STEM careers.

RETAIN & RECOGNIZE

Motivate and inspire your employees through providing a meaningful growth opportunity—and a digital credential to display.

FOSTER COMMUNITY

Enroll a group of employees to break down silos and build valuable connections through expertly-designed programming.

SCALE LEARNING

Proven expertise in negotiation,
conflict management,
emotional intelligence, design
thinking, change management and more.

Influencing Key Stakeholders

Negotiation and Conflict Management

Leading with Emotional Intelligence

Leading Change and Leveraging Diversity

Design Thinking

DETAILS

Women in Technical Leadership is for early- to mid-career professionals, regardless of sex or gender, in scientific and technical roles within any industry, who aspire to improve their leadership effectiveness and advance their careers. Past participants include professionals in IT & Analytics, Manufacturing, Biotechnology, Scientific Research and Engineering fields.

Program participants earn a digital credential to showcase on their LinkedIn profile or other digital platforms.

PROGRAMS

01

April 25-27, 2023
Virtual Program

02

June 13-15, 2023
Raleigh, NC

03

October 17-19, 2023
Raleigh, NC

Scan this QR code for more program details.

Contact us to discuss enrolling a group of employees from your organization!

executiveeducation@ncsu.edu

execed.poole.ncsu.edu